Senator Basham Appointed to NCSL Labor and Workforce Committee

(Lansing)- State Senator Ray Basham (D-Taylor) confirmed today that he has been appointed to the National Conference of State Legislatures' (NCSL) Labor and Workforce Committee. Sen. Basham said that he hoped that his years of experience as a union activist would be helpful to the committee.

"It's an honor to be asked to help represent our state on the NCSL committee dedicated to identifying and addressing the problems facing America's working families," said Sen. Basham. "NCSL provides Legislators from all over the country an opportunity to share ideas and influence public policy nationally."

The National Conference of State Legislatures is based in Washington, D.C. According to the official NCSL website, the organization is dedicated to improving the quality and effectiveness of state legislatures, promoting policy innovation and communication among state legislatures, and ensuring state legislatures are a strong, cohesive voice in the federal system.

Sen. Basham worked for Ford Motor Company for 30 years. He served as an Employee Support Services Representative for 12 years. He also served on the UAW Local 245 Bargaining Committee for 19 years.
